QUESTIONS FOR ORAL ANSWERS

1. Dr. the Honourable Godwin Friday, (Leader of the Opposition), to Prime Minister, Minister of National Security, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Legal Affairs and Information:

Upon the orders of the Government, persons displaced by the volcanic eruptions have returned to the Orange Zone. Many complain about scarcity of food and other essential supplies and about the large amounts of ash still on the ground and in the air that threatens their health and well-being.

Will the Honourable Prime Minister please state:

- i. What arrangements are in place to supply food and other necessities for residents returning to their homes in the Orange Zone;
 - ii. How the arrangements have been working; and
 - iii. How homeowners are being assisted by the Government with the clearing of volcanic ash for their private property.
2. Dr. the Honourable Godwin Friday, (Leader of the Opposition), to ask the Honourable Minister of Health, Wellness and the Environment:

The number of COVID 19 cases in this country continues to grow as the health authorities almost daily report new positive cases and have reported 148 in June alone. As of June 17, 2021, there were 237 active cases, more than in any other OECS country and Barbados, where the actives cases were as follows: St. Lucia - 115; Grenada-0; Barbados -18; Dominica - 1; St. Kitts - 94; Antigua - 7.

Will the Honourable Minister agree:

- i. That this country is moving in the wrong direction regarding COVID 19; and
 - ii. Explain the implications of this situation over the rest of the year for the people of the country.
3. Dr. the Honourable Godwin Friday, (Leader of the Opposition), to ask the Honourable Minister of Urban Development, Airport, Seaport, Energy and the Grenadines Affairs

The Ottley Hall Marina dockyard collapsed over two years ago and since then the local boat owners have had to take their boats including cargo boats and ferry boats to Trinidad and Tobago to be repaired at great cost and inconvenience.

Will the Honourable Minister say:

- i. What is the present condition of the Ottley Hall shipyard; and
 - ii. When will it be repaired and be available for use by local boat owners and provide jobs to local workers and revenue to the country.
4. The Honourable Terrance Ollivierre, (Member for the Southern Grenadines), to ask the Honourable Minister of Education and Reconciliation:

The Government had stated that it planned to provide tablets to all students from Kindergarten to Grade 6.

Will the Honourable Minister please state if:

- i. All students have received the tablets so far and if not why; and
 - ii. What is the Government's plan to utilize these devices in the on-going teaching and learning process.
5. The Honourable Terrance Ollivierre, (Member for the Southern Grenadines), to ask the Honourable Minister of Education and Reconciliation:

What are the Government's plans to deal with the management of COVID-19 in educational institutions throughout St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

6. The Honourable Major St. Clair Leacock, (Member for Central Kingstown), to ask the honourable Prime Minister, Minister of Foreign Affairs, National Security, Legal Affairs and Information:

There is much national discourse, daily news and the weekly news on the State of Justice; Rule of Law; Fairness and Governance. Many have cited the cases of Marcus De Freitas; "Bigger Bigs" and Dr. Wayne Murray as cases in point.

Will the Honourable Prime Minister please state:

- i. When would the above named individuals especially Marcus De Freitas who has been promised redress in the House be properly compensated

7. The Honourable Major St. Clair Leacock, (Member for Central Kingstown), to ask the honourable Minister of Transport and Works:

All across this country there is services infrastructure deficit in the state of our roads, drains, retaining walls, good rails and the lot goes on. The constituency of Central Kingstown is no exception.

The drains and supporting civil works outside "Ferdie" shop at Kingstown Park is in a dilapidated, non-functioning and threatening state. So too is the drain in the area of the phone booth in Largo Height, to name just two.

The roads in Kingstown Park, Redemption Sharpes an Green Hill are also in urgent need of attention.

Will the Honourable Minister please say:

What is the likelihood against competing claims these will be fixed over the next six (6) months.

8. The Honourable Major St. Clair Leacock, (Member for Central Kingstown), to ask the honourable Minister of Finance, Economic Planning and Information Technology:

As Minister of Finance you recently stated publicly that as part of the rehabilitation in the "Red Zone"; fridges, stoves and other appliances will be given to affected and qualifying homeowners.

- i. Does the Minister appreciate that these worthy actions will have greater transparency and fairness if there is either a National Task Force involvement or involvement of the Caretakers of the NDP who have very strong representation in these constituencies?
 - ii. When will consultation take place with the Opposition New Democratic Party (NDP) in the Rehabilitation and Reconstruction of the Red and Orange Zones which also happen to be Political Constituencies.
9. The Honourable Nigel Stephenson, (Member for South Leeward), to ask the Honourable Minister of Housing and Informal Human Settlement:

The eruption of La Soufriere led to the evacuation of residents of the designated red and orange zones.

Will the Honourable Minister please state:

- i. Please state how many evacuees have expressed an interest in being relocated;
- ii. Where the people requesting relocation are from; and
- iii. Where are the designated lands located.

10. The Honourable Nigel Stephenson, (Member for South Leeward), to ask the Honourable Minister of Social Development, Housing and Informal Human Settlement:

The Penniston Community Center was once utilized by the people of Penniston to enhance their quality of life. Today it is sadly in a dilapidated condition.

Will the Honourable Minister please state:

When that center will be rehabilitated and the estimated cost.

11. The Honourable Fitzgerald Bramble, (Member for East Kingstown), to ask the Prime Minister and Minister of National Security, Legal Affairs and Energy:
